Singapore, June 9th, 1876.

No. 233.

Dr. E. Bieber

German Consul

Singapore.

Sir,

I have the honour to place in your charge Herr K. Hamyl [sic!] late passenger in the P.&O. S. S. Lombardy from Hongkong to this port.

He is suffering from Softening of the Brain and on the morning of June 9th was the subject of Homicidal mania; after consultation with Dr. Bradley of H. M. S. S. Lily, I placed him under restraint and constant supervision, and the same was duly entered in the official logbook.

He has now a lucid interval, but I am unable to say from my short experience of his case for what period [2] he may remain so.

I have the honour
to remain,

Sir,

Yours faithfully,

John Barren

Surgeon

P&O S. S. Lombardy
